

You Know

Our work is always good.

We Know

Our work is better than ever before.

H. W. Craig,

The Marietta Picture Man.

February 1st

We begin invoicing and as we can invoice cash easier than goods we propose to convert our goods into cash, no matter what it costs. Overcoats, boys' and men's suits, shirts, underwear, hats, caps, neckwear and all kinds of men's furnishing, in fact everything we have in stock will be sold at a figure that will make them go. They are truly BARGAINS. Take advantage of them while they last.

Yours to please.

Sam Sulzbacher,

188 Front St. Marietta, O.

Weeding!

It's pretty cold weather for such work, ain't it?

But in preparing for Inventory Feb. 1st, we are weeding out a great many things in

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

FRIDAY, JAN. 17, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—The case of Ohio vs. Charles Camden, charged with non-support of minor children, was heard in Mayor's court Thursday. The defendant was bound over to Common Pleas Court in the sum of $100, which bond he gave and was released.

—C. A. Campbell, of Parkersburg, was a guest at the St. Cloud Thursday evening.

—The funeral services of Mrs. Henrietta Mason Stacy will be held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Warner Greene, Front street, at 1:30 p. m. today. The burial will be at Lowell.

—The subject of this evening's special service at the M. E. church will be "Tollers for the Master."

—The case of the city against the River Gas Co., which was to have come up at this term of Circuit Court, has been postponed and will probably be heard May 13th. The legal title of the case is Ohio ex rel J. C. Preston, Prosecuting Attorney, vs. the River Gas Co.

—A disturbance growing out of the settlement of the Wenzel alimony case occurred Thursday afternoon at the store of Mr. John Wenzel. Carrie Dye, a witness, demanded the payment of her fees from Lou Wenzel, who agreed in the compromise to pay all costs. Mr. Wenzel refused to pay any of the witness fees until the entire costs were taxed up by the Clerk. Miss Dye used some unbecoming language and was arrested on the charge of disorderly conduct. Mayor Palmer assessed a fine of $5 and costs.

—Judge Russell received a telegram Wednesday evening announcing the serious illness of his brother and left for home Thursday.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Toller, returned to her home at Sayresville Thursday.

—Mr. and Mrs. John McGee, of Elizabeth, W. Va., are in the city, guests of L. J. McGee.

—Work of erecting scaffolding preparatory to putting up the superstructure of the new draw span in the B. & S. W. bridge began Thursday. The large force employed is a certain indication that the work is to be pushed rapidly.

—A milk house belonging to James S. Devol, the dairyman, was burned Wednesday afternoon, entailing a loss of about $200. There was no insurance.

—Mrs. Mary Ramp, who has been ill for several weeks with rheumatism, is, we are pleased to state, improving.

—Mrs. John Barnes, of Parkersburg, wife of Conductor Barnes of the B. & O. S. W., was the guest of friends in the city Thursday.

—John Kaiser, manager of the National Supply Co's store, was in Macksburg on business Thursday.

—Mrs. W. W. Mason, who has been the guest of the family of James Boggs left Thursday for her home at Rockford, Ill.

—Mr. F. Elliott, of Oil City, Pa., attorney for the Standard Oil Co., was in the city Thursday on business connected with the case of the city against the River Gas Co.

—Born, Thursday morning, December 16th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hall, a daughter.

—The steamer Sunshine will take the run of the sunken steamer Congo in the Cincinnati and Madison trade, and the Bozeman will be brought up in the Pomeroy trade.

—A Parkersburg special says: Sherman A'bour, who was arrested and brought here from Tacoma, Washington, charged with robbing the Vienna and Davisville postoffices in this county, was tried at the United States Court and found guilty of both charges. When he was first brought back here he confessed to the officers and told them he proposed to go into court and plead guilty. He attempted to implicate his father-in-law who resides on the Ohio side, a few miles up the river.

—Mrs. Chris. Schletzer, of Glendale, is seriously ill.

—Colonel Harry D. Knox returned Wednesday night from Columbus, where he attended the Inaugural ceremonies.

—Born, January 15th, a son to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Finch, of Fleming, O.

—John H. Becker was yesterday awarded the contract for building the cabin of the new Bay line steamer, reference to which was made a day or so ago.

—At Cambridge Wednesday James T. Kelley, leading man in "A Baggage Check," which showed there, got on a spree and proceeded to beat his wife, who is with the same company. He beat her unmercifully and threw a water pitcher at her, striking her on the head. Kelley was arrested and is now in jail.

—The T. & O. C. Ex. R. R. will change time Sunday, Jan. 19, train No. 8 leaving Marietta 2:15 p. m., leave Columbus 7:35 p. m., running through to Toledo. Sleeper for Chicago same as at present. Berths can be engaged upon application before leaving Marietta without previous notice.

—Suspicion has fastened itself upon a negro named Dyson, now at Parkersburg, and many people at Parkersburg think he is the fellow who committed the assault upon the little Wetherell girl a few days ago.

—In the appointment of committees Senators Dana and Falloon, of the Ninth-Fourteenth district, fare especially well. Dana is Chairman of Claims and Roads, Highways and Turnpikes and is also a member of committees on Telegraphs, Public Works, Public Lands, Penitentiary, Fees and Salaries and Enrollment. Falloon gets the Chairmanship of Industrial School for Boys and Girls and is a member of Finance, Municipal Corporations, Insurance and Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home.

—A. J. Ritz, of Bellairs, formerly of Lowell, was in the city Thursday.

—Jake Stehman left yesterday morning for Sistersville.

—The audience which greeted Chas. A. Gardner at the Auditorium Thursday night was not large, but it certainly was appreciative. Karl is an old favorite in Marietta and those who heard him this time thought he was in better voice than ever before. He was well supported by an able company.

—W. A. Eaton, of Macksburg, was in the city last evening.

—The "smoker" given Thursday evening by the Lobdell Cycling Club was the first event of the kind in the history of the organization, but it was nevertheless pronounced a stunning social success by every one of the 50 members present. Smoking was of course the main feature of the evening and at most any time during the evening a hole could have been bored in the atmosphere with an augur. Elegant refreshments were served and Messrs. Charles Strawder and Harry Theis contributed to the general enjoyment of the occasion by their singing and whistling. The festivities closed with a graceful star dance participated in by most of those present.

Equity.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

SISTERSVILLE.

The Gayley Bros. well on the Calbaugh farm on the Ohio side came in a good producer Wednesday afternoon. The well is a little in advance of anything drilled in that section and flowed at the rate of 20 barrels an hour. Oil men are of the opinion that a new pool has been opened up.

McCoy & Broadwater's No. 3 on the Weigle lease, over in Ohio, was drilled a short distance in the sand yesterday afternoon and started to flow. Last night the well was only a couple of feet in the sand, but was flowing steadily, and it is thought will make even a better well than either one of their others.

Roy, McMullen & Cushing will commence work in a couple of days on the well to be drilled on the Barr lease, over in Ohio, which they are to drill for an interest. The rig is up and the machinery is being hauled out to the lease now.

Work on the well of the Tracewell Oil Company, of Parkersburg, which will be put down at Byers, Jackson county, will commence at once, the contract calling for the completion of the well in sixty days. They expect to strike the pay at 1,400 feet. The company also has 9,000 acres under lease in Vinton and Athens county.

The race between Wilson & Gracey and the Cairo Oil Company, who are fighting because Wilson & Gracey are building rigs on the C. & K. V. railroad right of way, goes merrily on, and it is interesting to conjecture which firm will reap the golden harvest.

The South Penn Oil Company has just leased the Clark Satterfield land, lying south of the Nesbett well, paying $100 bonus and $10 per month. This territory was surrendered by the South Penn people, after the Barnsdall & Mallory well on J. P. Strickler's 100-acre farm came in a gasser.
